- Tom Pulsifer writes: Been selling Real Estate since I retired... laid off in 2003 from HP after 36 yrs with the Trio. Lived in the No. GA Mtns since 1998. Met Pam from New Orleans a wonderful lady who stole my heart after moving to Atlanta from Maine in 1991 and married in 1992 after being single for 13 years. Our house is on the market and when we sell we are moving to Pam's hometown of New Orleans where I will spend the rest of my life! pulsiferT@gmail.com
- Arthur Lampert wrote in to share the neat memorabilia at right: I worked in Israel, which was based in Herzliya, north of Tel Aviv, until it moved to Ra'anana, just to the east of Herzliya. I began in June 1988 and stayed through the transition to Compaq and then HP, where I still work. My jobs have changed, of course. arthur.lampert@hp.com
 - The DEC auto decals were used to identify company cars in Israel. The rainbow decals were very old, used when the standard company car was the Subaru 1600. Then came the blue logo decals in Hebrew, which were eventually replaced by the red ones in English. The keyboard is from my old VAX workstation. Note the Hebrew secondary character set.
