- From Chris Hager Williams: I'm retired, was HR - primarily Technical Recruiter for years – started at DEC, later Motorola, Intel, Charles Stark Draper Laboratory, couple of startups. Loved working at DEC for Arthur Franson, Roger Shaller, Harlan Chizen, other fantastic people like Plant Manager Peter Koch, in the Mill - in the days when Ken roamed ML-5 early in the morning. Now I live on my fake farm (70 acres and view, no horses here now), Downeast Maine, selling antique books on ebay (1800's-early 1900's) for fun & $. It's a good life, good kids, good grandkids. Learned most everything I know about HR and recruiting at DEC. Great place to work! Thanks to DEC people and training, working life was good to me. windswake@earthlink.net
- Steve Webber writes: Currently semi-retired. I work summers about 20 hours a week at Kimballs Ice Cream in Westford, MA. I am one of the managers working primarily at the golf driving range and pitch and putt 9 hole course. I also do other duties as requested (reminds me do all hands on DEC ;)) I am a 2 day a week baby sitter for my 2 year old granddaughter. One of my loves! Spent a few years at Raytheon as a I.S. Security Officer with a stop security clearance that was fun. Now trying to just enjoy each day. Volunteering at church. Soon to be joined by my wife of 36 years in her retirement from 30 plus years of serving our veterans. Webbers10@hotmail.com
- From Wayne Gaskill: I am retired and do some volunteering for the local Church here in the Tampa area. I also help a few friends with their boats and have make it a point to hit the gym every morning. Of course I have the never ending honey-do list that I enjoy. Capt. Wayne Gaskill cwgaskill@tampabay.rr.com
- From Greg Hoffman: I work with Intermap Technologies (www.intermap.com) in their Denver, Colorado based Corporate Headquarters office as the Director of Human Resources. Our company uses location based information to create unique market point solutions that help enterprises and government agencies solve their location based information challenges. ghoffman@intermap.com
- From Peter and Judy Durant: Pete is retired, playing golf, biking and cooking for my wife Judy who works 24/7 as a successful realtor. SW Florida is a great place to retire, and we love it here. We're near Sarasota, the cultural capital of West Florida. Would like to be closer to children (MA and CA) but... Judy writes that she is a Realtor here in Bradenton, FL which is on the Gulf coast (just north of Sarasota & south of Tampa Bay) Our office specializes in condo sales so we work with lots of 'snowbirds' hoping to escape the winter snow/ice. Lots of great bargains are still available so it's very busy and a fun job.

- Bill Seaver has been enjoying traveling. In November, responding to his daughter's request for ashrams and elephants, he went Nepal and India. The trip turned out to be a great way to bond with our two adult children. January in Mexico was a great way to miss the cold weather.
billseaver@earthlink.net
- From Marty Palmieri: I am now a retired software engineer spending time assisting my daughter and son with remodels and updates of their homes, traveling a bit (recently to Italy), golfing, gardening, duties around home and wondering how I was able to get all of my non-work related activities done when I was working. And most important, experiencing grandchildren. marty.palmieri@gmail.com
- David H. Chen: I am getting ready to retire from the business that I helped start in internet advertising analytics. Target date is June, then a trip to Africa and after that, we'll see. david.h.chen@comcast.net
- Carolyn Herbert: I am retired and will move to Vermont sometime this year. I spend my time doing volunteer work with the Harvard Council on Aging and The Harvard Womens club. Enjoy oil painting on wood and canvas. Also have a small business of framing with a product of a wedding invitation and mirror. cherbert14@verizon.net
- Jim Higgins is retired in Harvard with his wife, Nadya. He is involved in volunteer activities as well as an occasional marketing consulting engagement. higginjames@gmail.com
- From Jim Evans: I am currently working at Oracle in Burlington, MA as a SPARC server qualifications engineer. n1hts@comcast.net
- From Su Bennett: I worked at DEC from 1977-2000 mostly at NIO-Salem, NH Manufacturing in Finance. Currently working at Polycom in Andover MA as an Inventory Control Analyst and am working with lots of old DECies, and sometimes we reminisce about the good old days !!!
su_ben142@hotmail.com
- William DeSimone writes: I am semi-retired and work part time providing marketing services on a contractual basis. wadsystems@comcast.net
- New DECconnection member Chuck Conley writes: I joined DEC in 1967 (Badge 3902); started out doing PDP-8 programming, worked in Home Office SW Support, DECUS, and IS (now it would be called Information Technology), mostly in OPVAX Order Processing and the NARS (Accounts Receivable) system. Fully retired in 1997, I am enjoying retirement with many interests and activities. nepacer@aol.com
- From new member Taryn (formerly Lee) Johnson: At Digital for 24 years, 1975 -1999. Worked in Maynard, PK3, PK1 & PK2, Bedford (customer training on Cosby Dr and Hudson (Semiconductor HL03-until it became Intel) I left DEC in Dec. 1999. Since then, I worked at GTE-Networking which eventually became Genuity, as a realtor in MA, and today am working at Genzyme in Framingham, MA. in the Metrology

Dept. I am hoping to make the BBQ in June to meet and re-connecting with former DEC employees. tjohnson@hentar.com

- Linda Crawford is our Featured Entrepreneur: I am currently a Gluten-Food Allergy-Toxin Coach specializing in working with clients nationwide who are struggling with food allergies/or toxins (in the home related to allergies) that need information, education or support through this difficult challenge in their lives. I work with clients through an online, private website, by phone or face to face, if local in Orange County, CA. I also am a Southern Cook and work with clients who need help in shopping, cooking and eating delicious, healthy, allergy-free dishes. Offer a VIP Day where I take you on a grocery shopping tour, do kitchen setup, cupboard clearing, menu planning and cooking classes in your home! My goal is to work with you to face and embrace your food allergies so they don't control your life. You control them through education and knowing what to do so you can live your best life. To Your Health!
