Happy Holidays

Hi DEC Connection friends, it's time for your Digital turkey again! Wishing you all a happy and safe holiday season.

Here is one way you might like to celebrate: Catch the Compaq Big Band at Boston College on Friday, December 2nd. This dance is hosted by the phenomenal folks at BC Full Swing. There will be a group-friendly basic lindy lesson from 8pm-9pm, and the band plays 9pm-11:45pm. Dancers of all levels and age groups, singles, couples, groups, and other collegiate swing and ballroom dance organizations are welcome. Free event. Details here.

Digital and the Industry

John Holz sent in a couple of funny stories after reading about Jack Mileski's trip to E. Germany and the Russian manual. Read them at this link.

Thanks to eagle-eyed Jerry Bernath (bernathbibi@gmail.com) for sharing this TIMELY advice for DEC SERP and retirees who have been moved to a more expensive Medicare supplement plan by HP - Jerry noticed some fine print explaining how to use the AON Retiree Health Exchange with a benefit of $1080 to select an alternative supplement to the one HP moved him to. Check this out: you'd have til December 7 to implement a plan beginning Jan. 1, 2017 but if you don't finish you can still start Feb. 1. Thanks also to Nancy Kilty for providing 6 pages of this document now on our website at this link with further instructions. And explaining that if you left the HP plan, unlike previously, you have an option to try this plan but can return to HP options next time. You can also go directly to AON Retiree Health Exchange for HP, 1-800-975-0355, or <http://retiree.aon.com/hewlettpackard>
