2021 Events

When it rains, it pours! We finally are firming up plans for in-person events again. Yay! Hope you all got your covid vaccinations. Here are the plans thus far, so you can save the dates:

1. Summer get-together at Kimball Farms - Fri. July 30, rain date Fri Aug 6, from 3-6 pm. Will be held in the (free) public tents with picnic tables, just inside by food stand - NOT in the (expensive) corporate area for private parties. Details below.
 2. Participation in Maynard's 150th Birthday Celebration - Founder's Day, Sept. 19, 2021 - March in parade in afternoon (wearing your favorite DEC logo clothes if you still have some - if not go to www.decs wag.com), followed by ceremonies and then a private DEC Connection catered dinner at a restaurant downtown. The Mill Marker Display will be dedicated on June 5. Photos on our website here.
 3. We'd like to know how many people would attend a Red Sox minor league baseball game at the new Polar Park Stadium in Worcester, should we hold an event. Tickets for groups of 15 or more range from $9 (outfield) to $29 (behind home plate), several levels, those $20 or more look better. If you are interested reply to info@deconnection.org and tell us your preferred price range and best days/times. Choices seem to be most weekday games (Tues-Fri) begin 6:30 pm (exception: 2 Wed 12:15 pm games), Sat 4 pm, Sun 1 pm. Hopefully we'll have enough with similar availabilities. Check out the new stadium at this link Note the corporate boxes are sponsored by DCU!

SUMMER GET-TOGETHER AT KIMBALL FARM

The DECconnection summer event this year will be held at Kimball Farm, 400 Littleton Road, Westford, MA the afternoon of Friday, July 30th, from 3-6 PM.

Meeting place will be in the (free) public tents with picnic tables, just inside by food stand - NOT in the (expensive) corporate area for private parties.

Lots of fun to be had for everyone with games, rides, food, drinks and of course their famous ice cream. You can see what they have to offer by visiting their website at <http://kimballfarm.com/>.

DECconnection will provide $15 gifts for all paid-up registered members, which can be spent on anything that takes your fancy (food, drinks, rides, games, ice cream, etc.) Non-members/guests are welcome to join us, but will not receive $15. You pay for your own rides, golf, ice cream, food, etc. otherwise.

To sign up (no advance tickets required, but we'd appreciate knowing if you plan to attend so we can stake out several tables together) please email info@deconnection.org with your name, email address, and # of attendees. In the event of rain, outing will be postponed 1 week. We'll announce cancellation on our website home page.

Digital and the Industry

We owe a debt of gratitude to Jack MacKeen (right in photo) and Jack Mileski (at left) for integrating DEC Connection with the Town of Maynard's activities, and for achieving the following:

1. DEC Connection's Participation in the Maynard Sesquicentennial Founder's Day celebrations (see Events above). The Mill Marker is complete and being dedicated on June 5. Here are photos of the finished display. An entire panel features Digital, and the DEC Connection logo appears prominently with other sponsors on the last Mill panel.
2. The Maynard Town Library now features a display on Digital Equipment Corporation, including a statuette of Ken Olsen that we commissioned. Here are some photos of the display.

Congratulations and thank you, Jack MacKeen and Jack Mileski!

Lost and Found

Devin Monnens, a computer historian, is looking for Richard (Dick) Pascal or Gerry Moore, formerly of Digital Chicago area. He is seeking a physical copy of a PDP-12 game called Billiards developed by Gil Fair between 1970-1972, and thinks they might be able to help. (We found Gil.)

Here is a link to the fascinating background.

Devin is also interested in talking with people familiar with the game. Contact Devin at devinmonnens@gmail.com.

Marce Enright writes: Marce continues maintaining the web site www.nejazz.com. However, when Covid19 hit a year ago, all music venues were forced to close. Musicians began streaming their music on-line over the internet. Some of these have been added to our calendars, while we look forward to the resumption of in-person, live Jazz. marce@nejazz.com

Barbara Langdon was elected as a North Port City Commissioner for the City of North Port, Florida, where she and her husband "retired." Congrats, Barbara! Barbara worked in Marketing Communications at Digital in the mid-1980s to early 1990s.

Bob Nusbaum says: Retired from the computer industry in 2017, wrapping up a 47-year career (including 2 years off to get an MBA). The highlight was definitely 1978-2000 at DEC/Compaq. In 2000 we moved to Silicon Valley, where I worked for Brocade (now Broadcom), 3 start-ups, Cisco, and QLogic => Cavium => Marvell. My wife Sue and I are now enjoying life as perpetual snowbird beach bums. bob_nusbaum@comcast.net

Ian Ferguson, a DEC Connection member from Canada, shared that he has just published his seventh fictional novel since 2012. Here is his publication profile on Amazon . Very impressive, Ian!
See our Members in Print page on our website for Ian's books and those of other DEC Connection members.
